Caring Hands for Life!

Maternity Leave Update

May 2025: The sun has been shining, the temperatures are warming up, and I'm ready to emerge from "newborn hibernation".

We welcomed our second son, Kieran Conrad Geoffrey White on March 5th at 6:24 pm weighing in at 5-lbs 15-oz.

We are all doing well and are adjusting to our new family of four. Life is busy, but I am so thankful for this little guy, and having this time with him. Nolan absolutely adores his new baby brother.

My Return

I will be working a few dates in May and June.

In July, my plan is to return part-time, working 3 days a week and slowly introducing more times throughout the rest of the year. Spaces will be limited, so please book your preferred day/time online or email.

I look forward to seeing you all very soon!
